If you have a passion for helping people, like to think outside the box to problem solve, appreciate excellent mentorship and opportunities to help accident victims rebuild their lives; then GLP Attorneys, may be just the right place for you. GLP wants to make our injured client whole again. Full and fair compensation for injuries that are no fault of a client can go a long way toward getting their lives back and ensuring that a client's family will be provided for. GLP Attorneys, has been helping injury victims for over 30 years in Washington and we are currently looking for an associate attorney interested in working in our Vancouver office.

Interested candidates must have:

- Minimum of 3-5 years of experience handling all phases of plaintiff personal injury cases
- Admitted to the Washington State Bar
- Strong litigation experience (arbitration and jury trial)
- Willingness and desire to work in a collaborative environment, but also be able to set and accomplish individual goals
- Willingness and ability to travel
- Admission to the Oregon State Bar a plus
- Fluency in Spanish a plus

We offer competitive compensation packages and generous benefits, as well as a supportive and team-driven environment.

If you have a passion for bringing justice to injured clients and creating positive changes for our client's lives and their families, we would like to get to know you!
