

Dedicated Tacoma medical malpractice defense firm seeks experienced lawyer for either a Senior Associate or Partner position. Benefits of the firm include practicing law in a collegial, relaxed, family friendly, and flexible environment, while still immersing yourself in challenging, complex, and high value medical defense work.

This is an exceptional opportunity for a lawyer looking to join forces with top notch trial team actively engaged in developing the next generation of malpractice trial lawyers. In short, we are a small firm that delivers big firm results for our clients.

Necessary qualifications include:

- Minimum three to five years of experience in a law firm setting
- Trial/arbitration experience, lead or second chair
- Strong writing and analytical skills
- Excellent public speaking skills
- Washington State Bar admission
- Proven track record in medical malpractice defense (preferred)

We offer engaged mentorship, substantial client contact, partners committed to the highest ethical standards, and support for marketing and community service ventures. Opportunities to form relationships with existing clients, and the support and freedom to market new ones. Competitive compensation and benefits available, negotiable.
