

Robin H. Balsam P.S. has an immediate opening for an associate attorney. Details regarding the position and how to apply are below.

Robin H. Balsam P.S. is a well-established probate, trust and guardianship litigation firm in Pierce County with an immediate need for a litigation associate with experience in our practice area. If you are interested, then experience in the fields of General Practice and/or Family Law litigation will suffice. The candidates must have three or more years of law firm experience in drafting and arguing motions, taking depositions, attending hearings, trials and mediations, and monitoring all other aspects of litigation. Interest and/or experience representing parties in probate, trust, and guardianship, and other elder law cases are preferred.

Robin H. Balsam P.S. provides unique opportunities for associates to quickly gain hands-on litigation experience and become a valued member of our busy and collaborative litigation practice. The successful candidate will have the ability to work collaboratively on a team but should be willing to take ownership of and manage cases independently when needed. Attention to detail and pride in one's work are required traits of successful attorneys at our firm.

To apply, send a cover letter, resume, writing sample, and law school transcript to Amylyn at sec2@balsamlaw.com. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
