

Bankruptcy Auditor – U.S. Trustee Program – Seattle

The Office of the United States Trustee is currently hiring for a Bankruptcy Auditor position. A Bankruptcy Auditor is responsible for the financial analysis and related investigative work associated with bankruptcy cases under applicable law to support the litigation and civil enforcement efforts of the USTP. Analytical and investigative assignments require a professional knowledge of accounting and financial analysis to perform work that is similar in scope and complexity to that performed by a public accounting firm. Further information and the link to apply can be found here:

<https://www.usajobs.gov/GetJob/ViewDetails/584905800> (Seattle is one of several hiring locations listed, you can choose specific locations of interest when applying).

If you have any questions or are interested in applying, please contact the Seattle UST office at (206) 553-2000, ext. 229 or reach out to any member of the office.