

Nancy J. Lee
Attorney at Law

BIOGRAPHY

Nancy J. Lee is in private practice in Puyallup, serving aging and disabled persons in her community. Her practice focuses primarily on estate and disability planning, Medicaid Long Term Care planning, trusts, and guardianship. She also provides related estate planning services to persons of all ages.

Nancy graduated with honors from Seattle University School of Law in 2008. Before becoming an attorney, Nancy worked for The Boeing Company for twenty- two years, primarily as an Engineering Manager. In addition to her management responsibilities, Nancy regularly developed and facilitated process improvement, and leadership skills development workshops for Boeing.

Nancy is a past member of Inns of Court, and past president of the Washington Chapter of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (WAELA). Nancy is also an adjunct professor at Seattle University School of Law, where she teaches Elder Law and Introduction to Guardianship. She has served as vice-chair for the Guardianship Committee with the Tacoma Pierce County Bar Association. She is a member of the Washington State Bar; the King County Bar; and the Tacoma Pierce County Bar.

Born and raised in the Pacific Northwest, Nancy grew up in Burien, Washington, where her father, Malcolm Bell, was also an attorney and court commissioner. Her son, David Morgenthaler, graduated from Seattle University School of Law with honors in 2015, and joined the practice in 2017.
