

The Tacoma-Pierce County Bar Association
Presents a 3-Hour Virtual CLE

PROTECTING THE VULNERABLE

December 3, 2021

1:00—4:15 pm

The vulnerable are found in every age group, income level, gender and ethnicity. Washington has new laws going into effect in 2022 for Adult Guardianship and Civil Restraints. Federal and state laws also protect against hate crimes and sex trafficking. Learn about the laws and practical application so you can be ready if called on to help.

1:00—2:00 Adult Guardianship in 2022

Commissioner Craig Adams was appointed to the position of Pierce County Superior Court Commissioner in 2012. He is known for his work with adult and minor guardianships.

2:00—2:30 Civil Restraints in 2022

Commissioner Barbara McInville was appointed to the position of Court Commissioner in 2017. Prior to her appointment she was a family law attorney.

2:30—2:45 Break

2:45—3:45 Sex Trafficking

Erik Bauer is a Tacoma attorney with over 30 years of practice. He represents victims of sexual abuse, sexual assault and harassment.

3:45—4:15 Prosecution & Defense of Hate Crimes

Michael Kawamura is the Director of Pierce County Department of Assigned Counsel (since 2006).
James Schacht is a Pierce County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney (since 1990).

Moderator: Michael S. Clark, CLE Committee Chair
